MEDITECH EXPANSE

This course will guide you through a review of the Summary Screen and Reference Region, and will demonstrate how to customize your widget layout.

Subtle on screen elements of the LIVE system may vary from what is shown within this course; however, the functionality is as shown.

The screenshot displays the Clinical Home Screen - MEDITEC interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with icons for Return To, Home, Workload, Sign, Compose, More, and Suspend. Below this, the user's name 'Tracy Sheehan, MD' is displayed, along with a 'Find Patient' search bar. The main content area is divided into three sections: 'Schedule', 'Workload', and 'Quick Links'. The 'Schedule' section shows a calendar for February 2019, with the date 'Fri February 22, 2019 10:24a' selected. A patient entry for 'T-TEST, AADAM' is highlighted with a red box, and a green callout box with the text 'click on 'T-TEST, AADAM'' points to it. The 'Workload' section is currently empty, and the 'Quick Links' section contains links for 'Connect', 'PDMP', and 'Mount Nittany Email'.

You will begin the lesson on the Clinical Home Screen. The most efficient way to open a patient's chart is clicking directly on the patient's name in your schedule. Select 'T-TEST, AADAM' to enter the patient's chart.

It may take a moment for the screen to load, depending on the volume of data associated with the patient. Once the screen is loaded, you will notice the Summary page is set up into two columns with different sections within each column. These sections are referred to as Widgets, and are designed to pull the most pertinent information to the 'front page' of the chart.

The screenshot displays a medical chart for Adam T-Test. The 'Summary' tab is active, showing a 'Last Assessment and Plan' section with 'No Data to Display'. Below this is a 'Documents' list with various medical notes and reports. To the right, there are 'Vitals' and 'Visits' sections. A green callout box highlights a 'Collapse All' icon (a square with an upward arrow) located on the left side of the gear icon in the Summary header. The 'Vitals' table shows data for 10/25/18 and 10/25/19. The 'Visits' table shows a visit on 02/22/19 by IM Bellefonte Shannon, Dennis A. III, MD for a Physical exam.

The Widgets you choose to put on your Summary page are completely customizable. We will review how to customize these later in this lesson. To quickly view all Widgets on your Summary Panel, you can collapse the sections by selecting the 'Collapse All' icon, located on the left of the gear icon. Please note that this same icon can be selected when the sections are collapsed and you want to expand them. Now, click the 'Collapse All' button.

The screenshot displays a medical chart interface for a patient named Adam T-Test. The interface is organized into several sections:

This brings you into the Overlay where you can view previous Lab Values to trend, or compare them to the current Lab Values. For example, let's look at a trend of the 'white blood cell count' by clicking on the laboratory name on the left side.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying a medical lab results page. The page title is "Lab Results - Last Value" and the specific test is "White Blood Count". The patient information is "T-TEST,AADAM 29 M 06/28/1989" with allergies "aspirin, Sulfa (Sulfonamide Antibiotics), oxycodone". The sections within the Reference Region are Widgets as well, and can also be customized to display the Widgets of your choice. Let's now look at how you can customize your Widget layout for the Summary tab and the Reference panel. To customize these Widgets, click on the 'gear' icon in the header area of the Summary page.

The Widget Preferences Overlay appears. Here you have the ability to customize the Summary section, which is on the left, or the Reference area, which is on the right. Beginning with the Summary tab, note the option to add Widgets to either column. Let's add a Health Maintenance Widget to our Summary page, click in the 'Add New Widget' field on the left side.

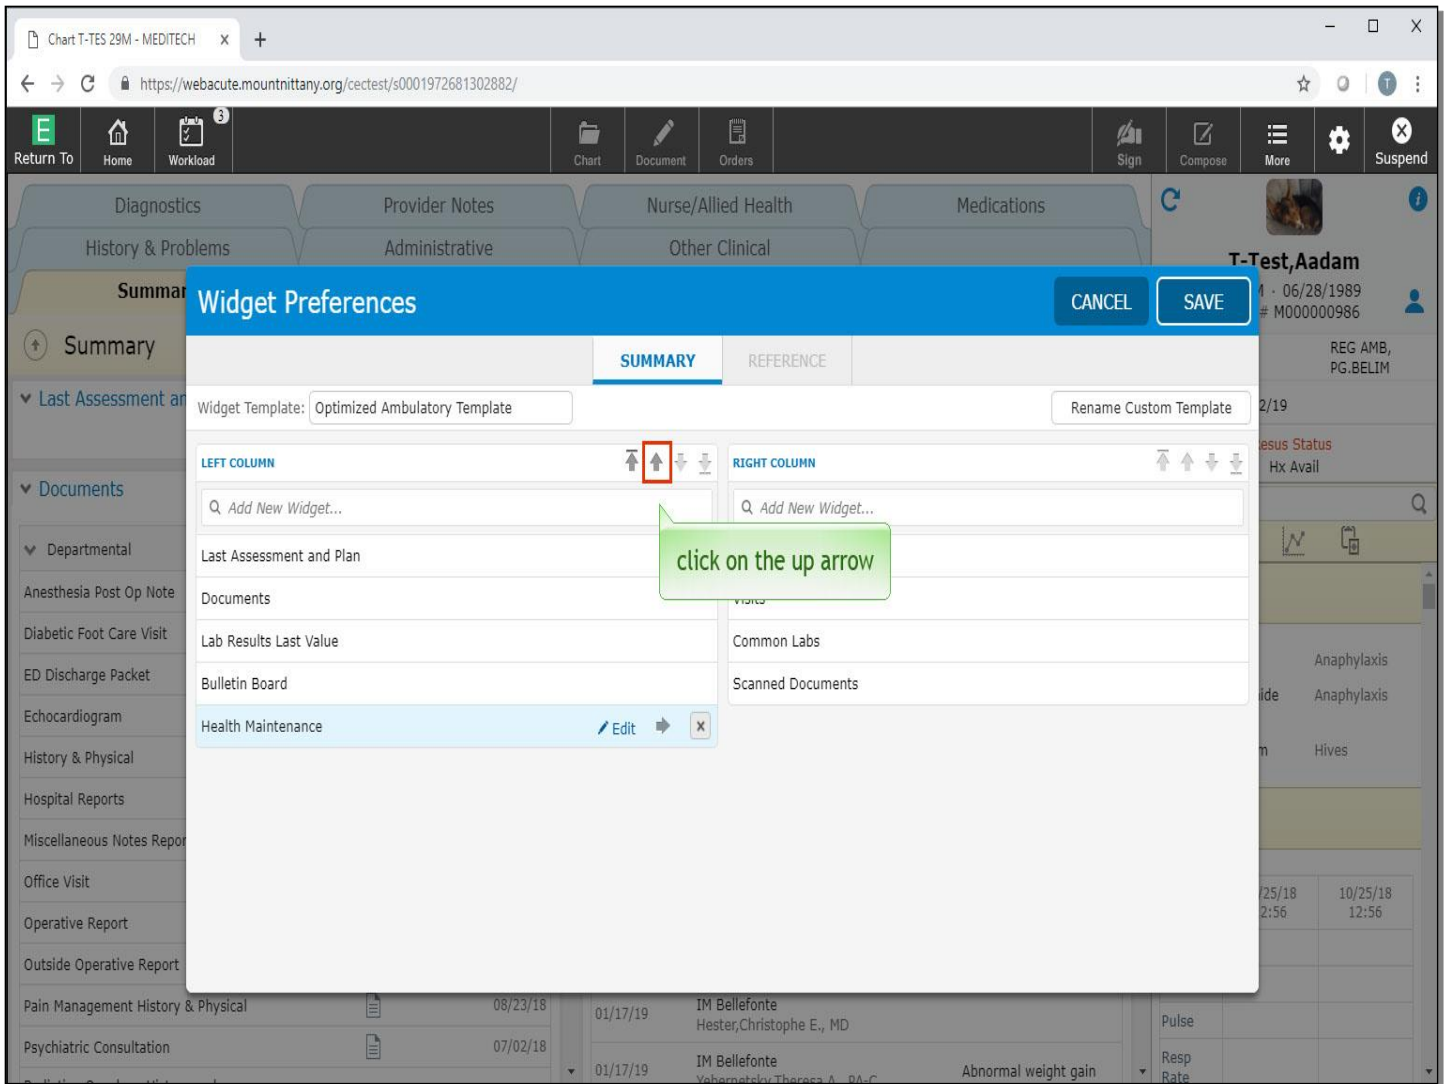

In the 'Search' field we will type in 'health' for you.

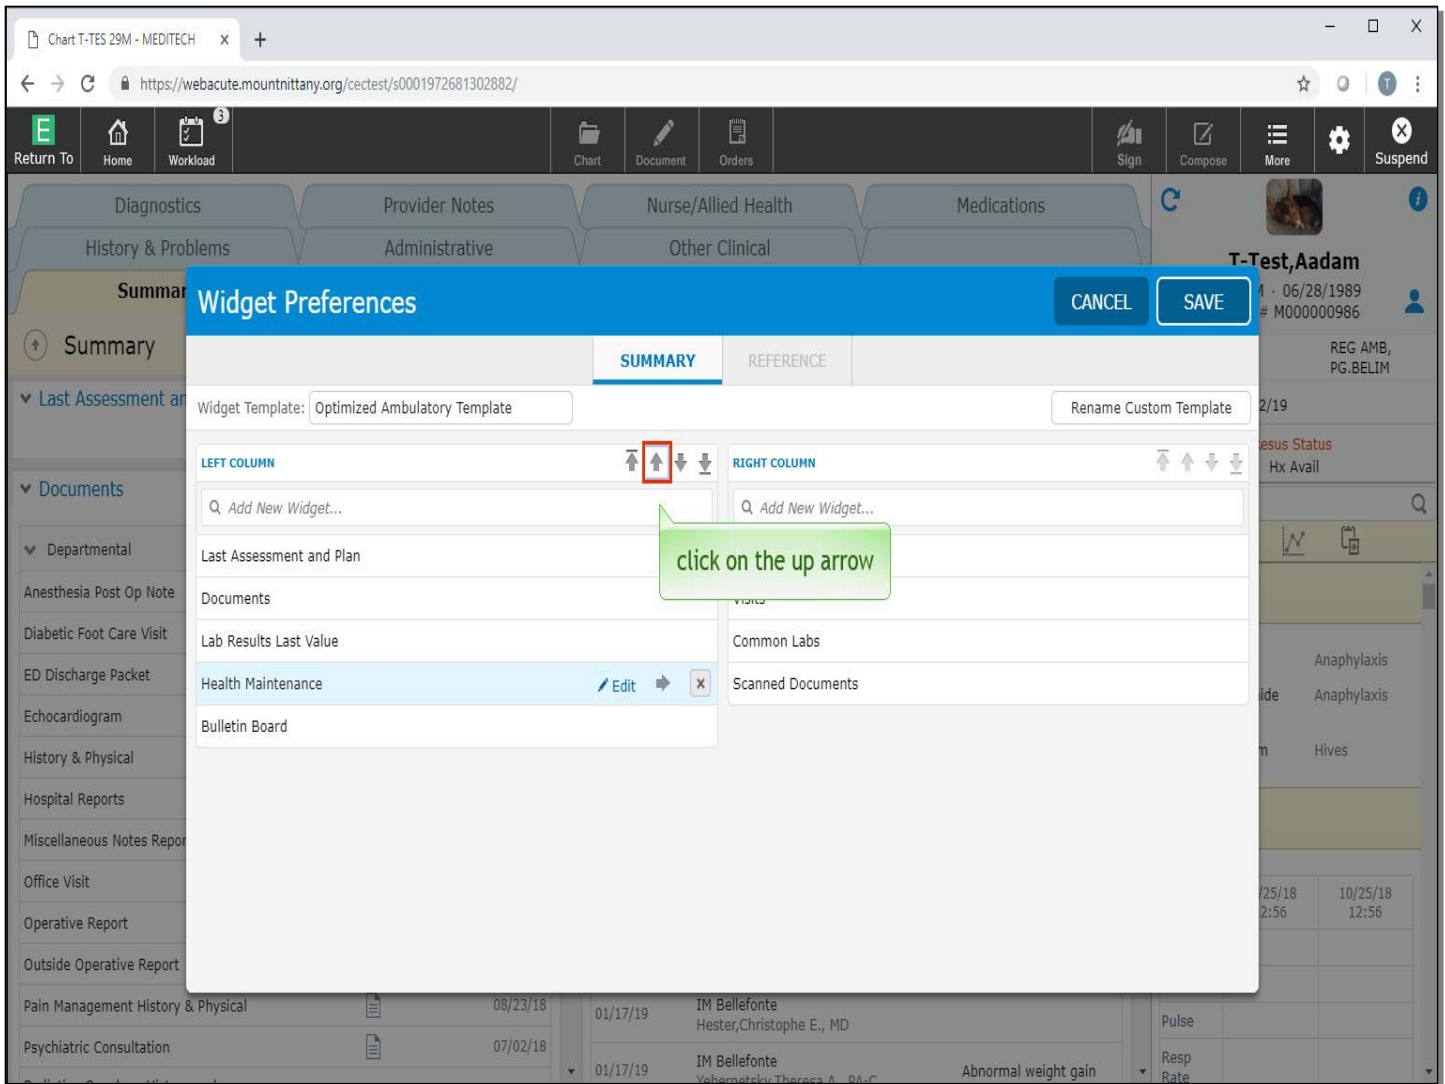

Click on the 'WebEhr Health Maintenance' Widget title to add it to the left column of the Summary page.

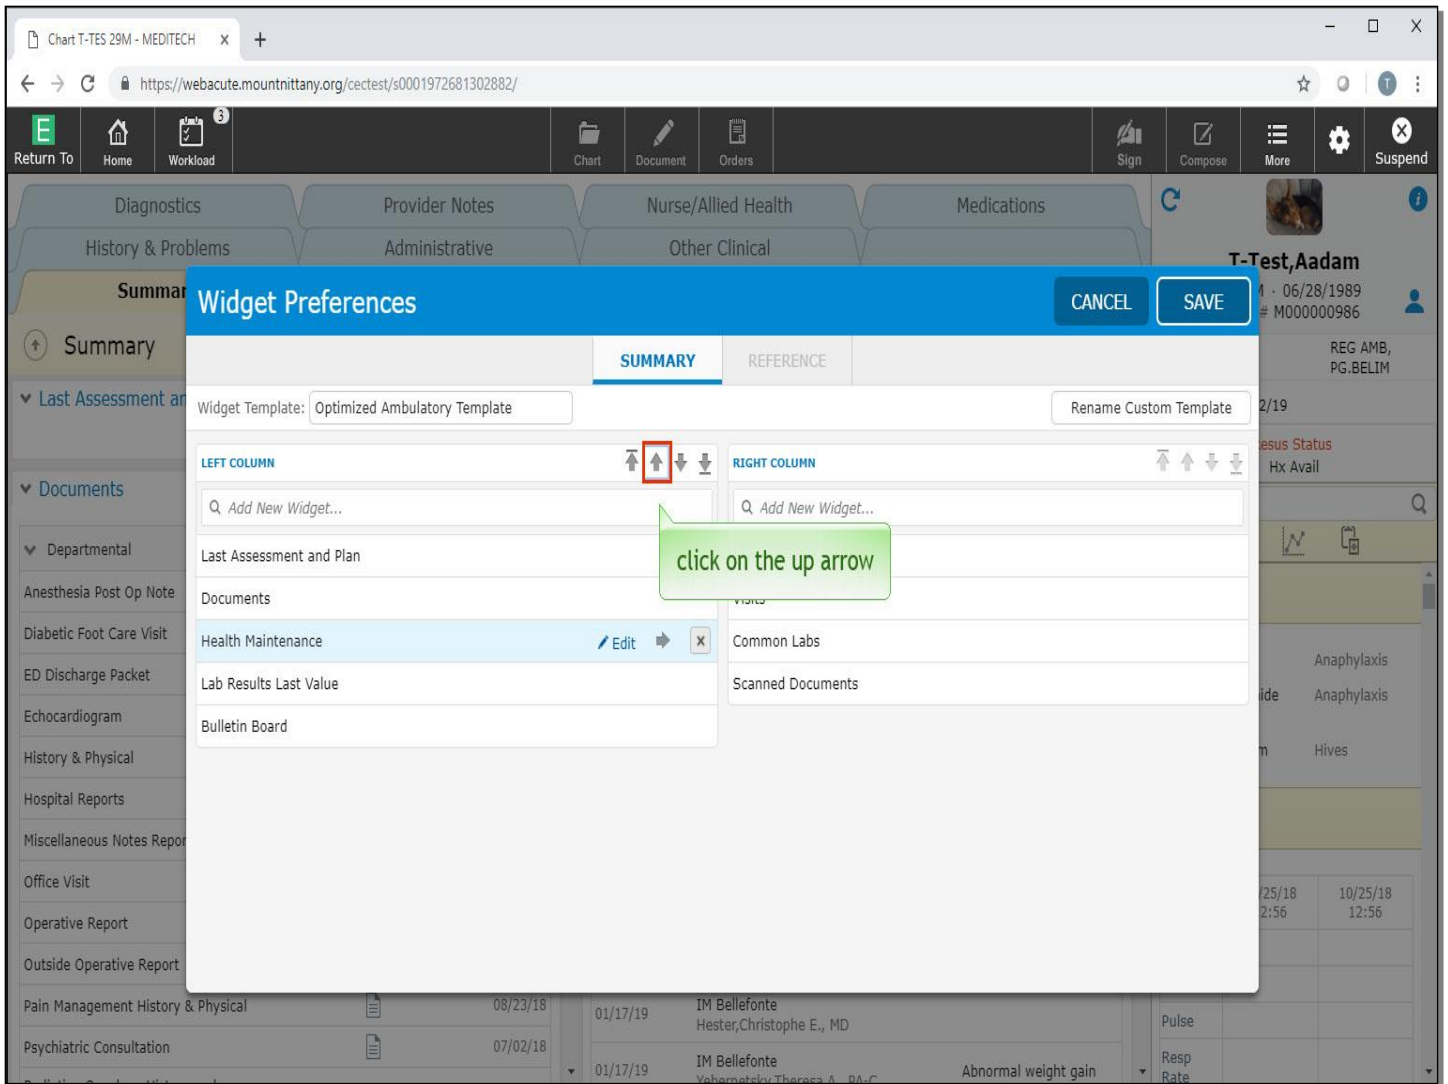

You can also rearrange the order of the Widgets. To do so, click on the newly added 'Health Maintenance' Widget title.

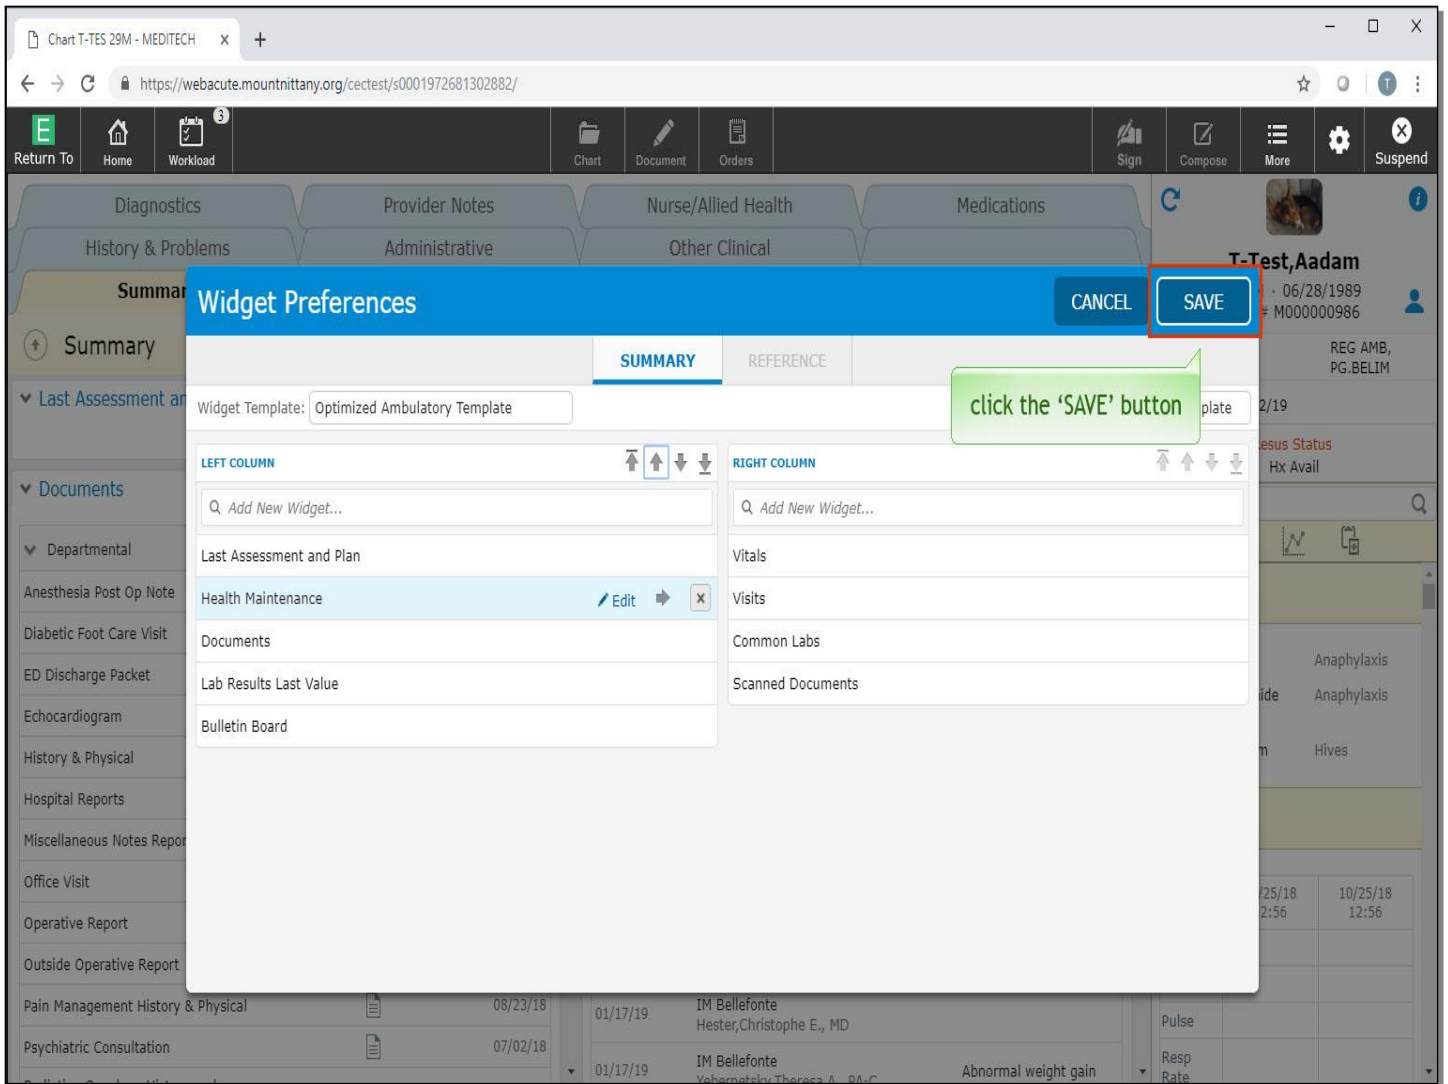

This highlights the Widget. Note that using these buttons you can edit this Widget. Move it to the right column or remove it from your layout altogether. For now we wish to move this Widget to a new position under the Last Assessment and Plan. Click on the 'up arrow' to move it up.

Using the up and down arrows is an easy way to rearrange the order in which the Widgets will appear so you can customize your Summary page. Click on the 'up arrow' again.

Click on the 'up arrow' one more time.

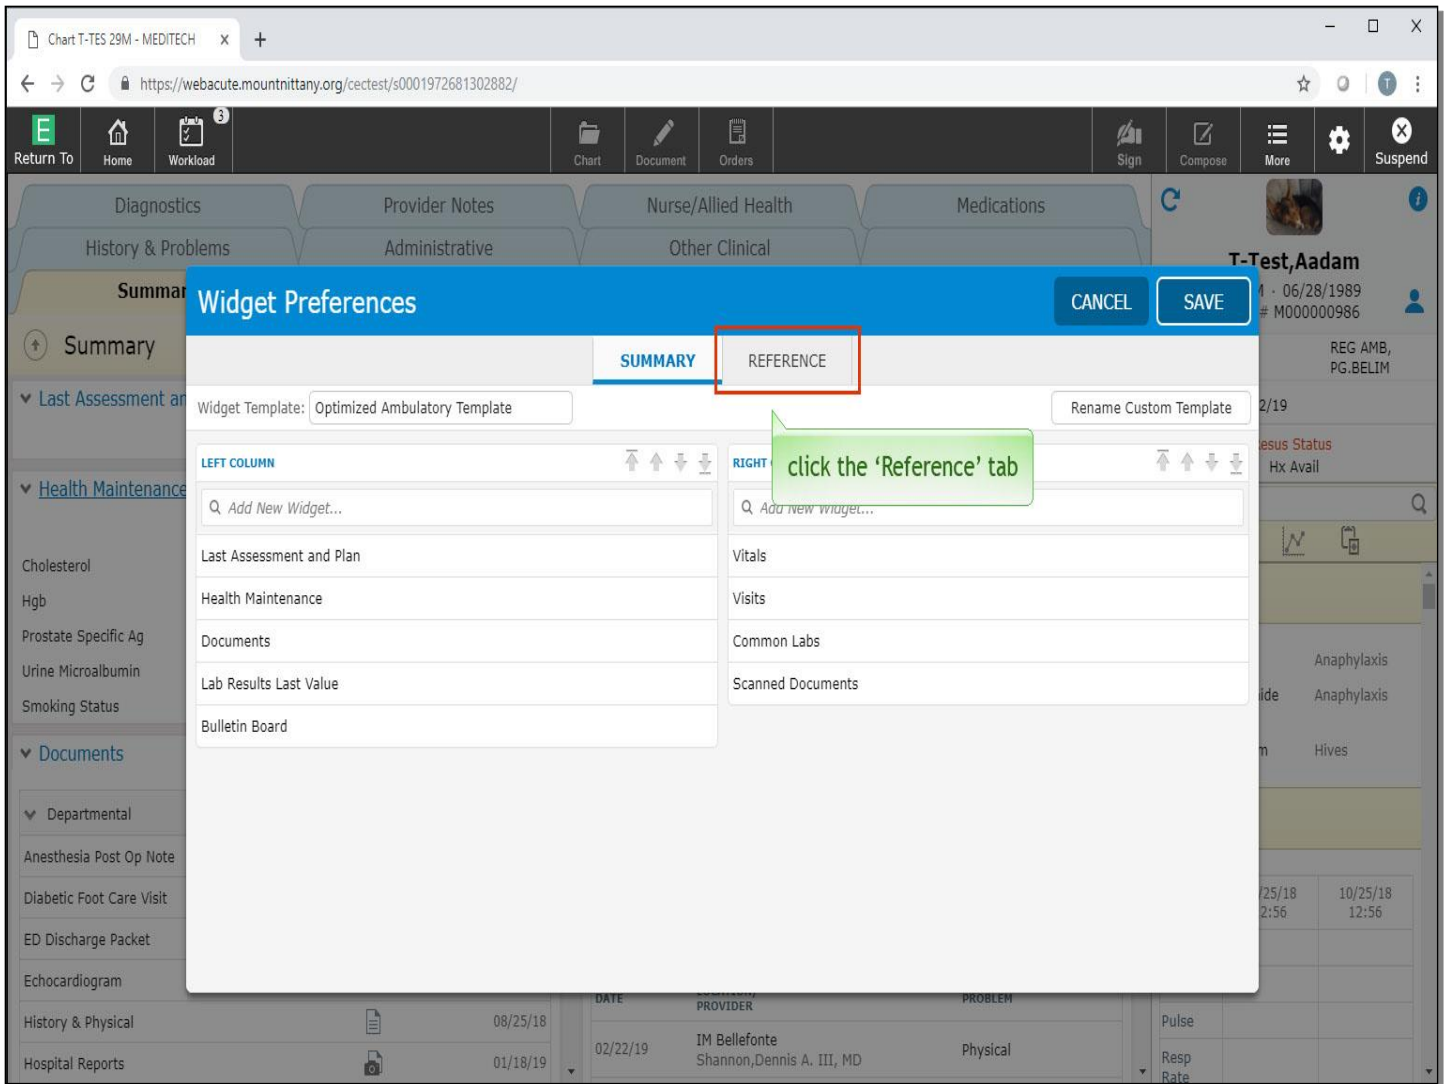

Click the 'SAVE' button.
